

Professional Development Day - 7 PDU's

Neal Whitten's Lets Talk! Leadership, Accountability and Professional Maturity

The PMI CRB Chapter is pleased to announce a 7 PDU - Professional Day with Neal Whitten, and his "Let's Talk!" seminar examining professional behaviors, discussing and resolving common behavioral issues, and learning professional-maturity best practices.

Neal Whitten, PMP, is a popular speaker, trainer, consultant, mentor, and best-selling author in the areas of leadership, project management and employee development. He has written over 150 articles for professional magazines and is the author of seven books.

The seminar will encompass leadership, accountability, and professional maturity issues including interpersonal communications and relationships, resolving conflict; mentoring, ethics and integrity, promoting change in your organization, project culture, roles and responsibilities, and much more.

What others are saying about this seminar...

I was so impressed with Neal's ability to role play interpersonal issues in the manner that he did. In my many years as a conference-going PM, I've never seen anyone so daring or effective in a group setting with such difficult subject matter. (Program Manager, Health Care)

Awesome seminar! I wish that all my co-workers would have attended. My organization and company need to hear this information to raise their level of professional maturity. (Project Manager, Energy)

Neal is a refreshing cross between Dr. Phil and Bill O'Reilly! (Business Analyst, Manufacturer)

Agenda

May 18th, 2018 7:30am – 4:30pm
CG Public House, 9221 W. Clearwater Ave #A Kennewick, Wa 99336

07:30 - 08:30 - Registration/ Breakfast Provided
11:30 - 12:30 - Lunch Provided
16:30 - Wrap-up / Closing Thoughts

Registration Information

Early Bird Pricing: (Before April 18th) Members $250 and Non-Chapter Members $300
April 19th or later: Members $325 and Non-Chapter Members $375

Visit pmicrb.org for more information and registration.